

Recipe for
One Billion Acts of Service

Take 10 Nobel Peace Laureates
Add 4,000 Teenagers from 31 Countries
Stir with Stimulating Ideas for Three Days in a College Setting
Place in Plenary Sessions and Small Group Dialogue
Season with Courage, Compassion and Confidence
Send out into the World for a Decade of Service

In a powerful presentation that will make you re-evaluate humankind's collective place in the world, Robert Weir will convey words and wisdom of 10 Nobel Peace Laureates and their interaction with young people through PeaceJam (www.peacejam.org)

YOUR VENUE
YOUR ADDRESS
DATE • TIME
ANY SPECIAL STATEMENT

Featuring

- The Dalai Lama, Tibet • Desmond Tutu, S. Africa •
- Oscar Arias, Costa Rica • Jose Ramos-Horta, E. Timor •
- Jody Williams, USA • Adolfo Perez Esquivel, Argentina •
- Shirin Ebadi, Iran • Rigoberta Menchu Tum, Guatemala •
- Betty Williams and Mairead Corrigan Maguire, N. Ireland •

The Dalai Lama looks directly at presenter Robert Weir as he blesses a host of journalists and photographers at the PeaceJam 10th anniversary celebration conference at the University of Denver, September 2006.

Robert Weir is an international writer and speaker. He lives in Kalamazoo, Michigan, USA.

“Recipe for One Billion Acts of Service” will include PowerPoint slides